AGENDA

I. Welcome

II. Report out on Subcommittee Meetings

- A. Student Data Subcommittee
- B. Curriculum Subcommittee
- C. BIPOC Candidates, HR, and PD
- D. School Resource Officers

III. ED-RED Member Feature: Forecast 5 and Barrington Unit School District 220

Forecast5 is a leader in data-analytics software that provides "advanced yet easy to use data" that supports the needs of the public sector. They are working with ED-RED member districts, as well as districts across the state and nation, to take data that is already being collected and using it to identify various equity gaps to inform programming and policy decisions. Specifically for K-12, Forecast5 will share how they partnered with some of these districts to leverage data to identify staffing inequities, support peer comparisons across all areas of K-12 data as well as to make strategic decisions to optimize all student outcomes utilizing detailed student data.

IV. Featured Presentation: Nicki Bazer, Franczek P.C.

Nicki Bazer of Franczek will speak to First Amendment issues as they relate to Districts/teachers/students expressing and discussing present-day issues related to equity.

V. Closing and next steps
